UNITED STATES TRUSTEE'S MOTION TO APPOINT A CHAPTER 11 TRUSTEE

TO THE HONORABLE ADLAI S. HARDIN,
U.S. BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The United States Trustee for Region 2 moves the Court to order the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee in the Bayou Group's bankruptcy cases (collectively "Bayou"). In support, the United States Trustee respectfully represents:

Overview

Under the Bankruptcy Code, a trustee must be appointed to administer a chapter 11 case if the debtor cannot properly fill the role of debtor in possession. In this case, neither Bayou's former management nor the custodian can perform the duties of a debtor-in-possession. Bayou's former managers have entered guilty pleas on federal fraud charges arising from their misappropriation of Bayou hedge fund assets. Joseph Marwil, the federal equity receiver, is a custodian, and the Bankruptcy Code limits a custodian's powers. This Court should authorize the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee to rectify the absence of appropriate fiduciary management of this bankruptcy case. "Cause" exists for the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee -- Bayou cannot exercise the powers and perform the duties of a trustee as a debtor in possession, and the receiver is not empowered under the Bankruptcy Code to exercise those powers and duties. Furthermore, appointing a chapter 11 trustee serves the “interests of creditors” by assuring that the fiduciary duties and powers of a trustee are exercised by an officer clearly empowered under the Bankruptcy Code. .

Factual Statement

1. Bayou was promoted as a group of hedge funds, but its management misappropriated investors’ assets and falsified financial reporting. The two key managers entered guilty pleas on the federal charges that resulted from these actions. See Transcripts of Guilty Pleas, Exhibit A and B to Bayou Group LLC v. UT Medical Group Basic Pension Plan, Adv. No. 06-8292.

2. As evidenced by Bayou’s failure to respond to the creditors’ federal district court action, the managers have not been managing the business.

3. Accordingly, Bayou has no corporate management to manage Bayou as debtor in possession.

4. Before the filing of the bankruptcy petitions, a group of Bayou investors formed an Unofficial Committee of Investors and filed a lawsuit seeking the appointment of a federal equity receiver. Complaint, docket entry 1, filed 03/27/06, Unofficial On-Shore Creditors’ Committee v. Bayou Group, LLC, 06-cv-2379, subsequently consolidated with In re Bayou, 06 MDL 1755; see Order of Consolidation, docket entry 27, entered 04/21/06.

5. The federal district court entered an order appointing Jeffrey Marwil, an attorney with Jenner & Block, as federal equity receiver. The Order Granting the Unofficial On-Shore Creditors’ Committee’s Motion to Appoint a Receiver provides that Marwil would

[S]ucceed to be the sole and exclusive managing member and representative of each of the Bayou Entities with the sole and exclusive power and authority to manage and direct the business and financial affairs of the Bayou Entities, including without limitation, the authority to petition for protection under the Bankruptcy Code . . . for any or all of the Bayou Entities and in connection therewith be and be deemed a debtor-in-possession for any or all of the Bayou Entities in proceedings under Chapter 11 of the Code, and prosecute such adversary proceedings and other matters as may be permitted under the Code and/or applicable law

On-Shore Federal Equity Receiver Order, ¶ 7(e) docket entry docket entry 12, entered 05/03/06; In re Bayou Group, LLC, No. 06 MDL 1755; 06-cv-2379.

Legal Analysis and Argument

6. Under the Bankruptcy Code, the court must order the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee when “cause” exists or when “such appointment is in the interests of creditors.” 11 U.S.C. §1104(a)(1),(2). Like all other chapter 11 cases where the debtor is not in possession, the Bayou case must be administered by a disinterested trustee who has clear legal authority to pursue litigation and to propose a plan. The Bankruptcy Code defines all receivers, including Marwil, as custodians, and the Bankruptcy Code severely limits the ability of a custodian or receiver to act as a fiduciary in a bankruptcy case. “Cause” therefore exists for the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee -- Bayou cannot exercise the powers and perform the duties of a trustee as a debtor in possession, and the receiver is not empowered under the Bankruptcy Code to exercise those powers and duties. Furthermore, appointing a chapter 11 trustee will serve the “interests of creditors” by assuring that the fiduciary duties and powers of a trustee are exercised by an officer clearly empowered under the law to do so.

7. The federal district court appointed Marwil as a federal equity receiver. “[A] receiver is the agent only of the court appointing him; he represents the court rather than the parties. He is custodian of property which is under the control of the court.” Ledbetter v. Farmers Bank & Trust Co., 142 F.2d 147, 150 (4th Cir. 1944). “The scope of federal equity receivership in this country has diminished sharply as the scope of bankruptcy practice and other statutory receiverships have enlarged.” Charles A. Wright & Arthur R. Miller Federal Practice & Procedure § 2966. The federal district court emphasized that the receivership terms were subject to the Bankruptcy Code.

Cf. On-Shore Federal Equity Receiver Order, ¶ 7(e) (noting “as authorized by the Code”)

8. Upon the filing of the bankruptcy cases, Marwil became a custodian and his role in the case is accordingly limited. “A receiver or trustee of any of the property of the debtor, appointed in a case . . . not under this title” is a “custodian.” 11 U.S.C. § 101(11)(a-b). As a custodian, Marwil cannot “take any action in the administration of [] property of the debtor . . . or property of the estate . . . except such action as is necessary to preserve such property.” 11 U.S.C. § 543(a).

9. Marwil must turn over “any property of the debtor held by or transferred to such custodian” to a trustee or the debtor-in-possession. 11 U.S.C. § 543(b)(1); cf. 11 U.S.C. § 1107(a) (defining duties of debtor-in-possession as echoing those of a trustee). Bayou does not have responsible management in place, so Marwil cannot turn the property over to a debtor-in-possession.¹

10. The Court cannot order Marwil’s appointment as a receiver under the Bankruptcy Code. “A court may not appoint a receiver under . . . title [11].” 11 U.S.C. § 105(b). “[T]he bankruptcy judge is prohibited from appointing a receiver . . . under any circumstances. The Bankruptcy Code has ample provision for the appointment of trustees when needed. Any appointment of a receiver would simply circumvent the established procedures.” H.R. Rep. No. 595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess. 316 (1977).

11. Even when the turnover requirements are modified pursuant to § 543(d)(1), a receiver may not act as a trustee or debtor in possession. “Since no section of the Code includes a receiver who remains in possession within the definition of trustee, the receiver does not take on the obligations and duties of a Chapter 11 trustee nor the somewhat different ones of a debtor-in-possession. Simply put the receiver has absolutely no responsibility . . . to perform any other duties which are the prerogative and burden of a debtor-in-possession and a trustee.” In re 400 Madison Ave. Ltd. Partnership, 213 B.R. 888 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1997). When a debtor in possession cannot perform these obligations and duties, these tasks must be delegated to a trustee. The District Court appointing Marwil was a stop-gap measure and cannot remove the Bankruptcy Court’s obligation to establish proper fiduciary control of these cases in accordance with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code. The appointment of a chapter 11 trustee avoids standing and procedural issues.

12. The need to establish control in the Bayou case in a properly empowered officer of the court establishes cause to appoint a chapter 11 trustee. Section 1104 mandates appointment of a trustee “for cause, including fraud, dishonesty, incompetence or gross mismanagement of the affairs of the debtor by current management, either before or after the commencement of the case, or similar case” 11 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1). The Second Circuit recognizes that the phrase “cause, including” encompasses other types of cause than the examples in the itemized list. See C-TC 9th Ave. Partnership v. Norton Co. (In re C-TC 9th Ave. Partnership), 113 F.3d 1304, 1311 (2d Cir. 1997) (construing “cause, including” in context of section 1112, the dismissal or conversion statute; specifying that list following “including” is “illustrative not exhaustive;” and holding that “bad faith” could be additional type of cause); 11 U.S.C. § 102(3) (“including” is “not limiting”).

13. Two circuits have held that “cause” exists when appointing a chapter 11 trustee “is the only effective way to pursue reorganization.” Cajun Elec. Power Coop., Inc. v. Central La. Elec. Coop., Inc. (In re Cajun Elec. Power Coop., Inc.), 74 F.3d 599, 600 (5th Cir.) (adopting on rehearing the opinion of dissent in 69 F.3d 746, 751), cert. denied, 519 U.S. 808 (1996); see also In re Marvel for all purposes under the Bankruptcy Code, yet section 105 proscribes this result.

Entertainment Group, Inc., 140 F.3d 463 (3d Cir. 1998) (adopting reasoning of Cajun Electric. and affirming appointment of trustee when acrimony between debtor's management and creditors undermined any ability to prosecute bankruptcy case). While Cajun Electric and Marvel have factual distinctions, both Cajun Electric and Marvel focused on the underlying problem that exists in the Bayou case: this case can proceed properly through the chapter 11 process only if a chapter 11 trustee is appointed.

14. Alternatively, the Court must order the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee because the appointment will assure that Bankruptcy Code duties and powers are performed and exercised by a properly empowered person. This resolution "is in the interests of creditors." 11 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(2). The "interests of creditors" standard is flexible. In re Marvel Entertainment Group, Inc., 140 F.3d 463, 474 (3d Cir. 1998).

15. The Bayou investors have an interest in having this case resolved cost-effectively and quickly. As litigation commences to recover redemption proceeds, redemption recipients will invoke any available defenses. Skirmishes about Marwil's standing and his compliance with bankruptcy law will undoubtedly delay case administration, increase costs, and undermine public confidence in the efficacy of the bankruptcy process. The appointment of a chapter 11 trustee will remove any doubt over the authority of the person administering the estates and will therefore foster the interests of the investors.

The Court should waive the briefing requirement

16. Because this Motion does not raise any novel questions of law, the United States Trustee requests that the Court waive the separate briefing requirement set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(b).

Conclusion

Bayou defrauded its investors before the filing of these cases. Litigation is just commencing in this bankruptcy case to return redemptions. "This is a large and messy bankruptcy that promises to get worse without a disinterested administrator at the helm." Cajun Elec. Power Coop., Inc. v. Central La. Elec. Coop., Inc. (In re Cajun Elec. Power Coop., Inc.), 74 F.3d 599, 600 (5th Cir.) (adopting on rehearing the opinion of dissent in 69 F.3d 746, 751), cert. denied, 519 U.S. 808 (1996). Whether the Court orders the appointment "for cause" or for the "interests of creditors" and the public, the facts here mandate the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee.

WHEREFORE, the United States Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter a final order granting this Motion, requiring the United States Trustee to appoint a chapter 11 trustee, and granting further proper relief.

Respectfully submitted,
